

I am contacting you concerning Broadband Transmissions on the AC power lines of the country. The interference generated by this will cause many problems in the radio frequency spectrum. This method of transmission was tried in Japan and was terminated due to the interference it created.

Sincerely yours,

R K Fetterman